Dated 10th August 2007

P.C:

1 In this application the applicants have prayed for condonation of delay of 15 days in filing the application with a further relief that the main prayer made in prayer clause (b) of the application be heard on merits and the final revised/modified scheme for common admission process Exhibit F to the application be allowed.

2. We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the parties. Vide judgment of the Division Bench dated 10th August 2006, it was noticed by the court that the matter has been substantially resolved before the court and the scheme formulated and placed on record of the court contains a salutary provision that would protect the interest of all concern. Resultantly, the court ordered adherence to the schedule. For variety of reasons, which have been stated in the application, the management has approached this court for alteration of the schedule, as it was not possible for them to adhere strictly to the schedule prescribed under the orders of the court.

3 For the reasons stated in the application and as the learned counsel appearing for all parties were ad-idem that the schedule would necessarily requires certain changes,of course there was some difference of opinion between them with regard to the proposed changed dates of the schedule.

4. Having given our considered thought to the entire matter as well as keeping in view the stand taken by the different parties to the application, including the State, we direct that the schedule of CET admission programme shall stand altered/modified as per the dates referred herein below:
